

Nursing Exalted In Many Tableaux

The pageant, "Signal Fire," embodying a lofty tribute to Florence Nightingale, the first exemplar of modern nursing and Sadie Heath Cabiness, widely honored for her services to and exaltation of this noble and humane profession, was presented with admirable effect last night at the Majestic theatre before a large audience which manifested its appreciation and even enthusiasm at the effective rendition of this panoramic spectacle.

The large number of participants in the spectacle or pageant in its varied and various phases precludes detailed men of them all in a newspaper review, but some of those with leading roles and outstanding contributions to the entertainment of those present deserve mention for their distinction. A prolonged, "The Lady with the Lamp," exemplifying and exalting the spirit of nursing was highly effective, Mrs. Harry Woodring Jr., known for her grace and talent in expression, winning new laurels for herself.

She was followed by a "dance of exorcism" in which disease is treated as a demon and driven out with a spell. This was arranged by the Schoolfield school, Miss Rose Brimmer, chairman, and presented a number of characters.

The vision of a girl, illustrating the career and service of Sadie Heath Cabiness, was presented in a series of tableaux. Mrs. Ernest Dodson, Mrs. John G. Wither and Miss Claude Lewis.

Then followed a tableau "Life of Florence Nightingale," Miss Margaret Cole impersonating Miss Nightingale, and William Norton an old shepherd. This tableau was arranged by Mrs. Wither.

The second Nightingale tableau illustrated the famous nurse visiting the Crimea. Miss Annie E. Raney, impersonating Miss Nightingale, while Mrs. Mary Edmunds, Mrs. Jesse Wilford and her two children Bobby and Martha, figured. This was arranged by the Whatsoever circle of King's Daughters.

The third tableau presented Miss Raney in the Nightingale role, Misses Lillie Voss and Kate Watkins as deaconesses, Billy Gunn and Anne Covington taking the juvenile roles. Miss Watkins, of the B & P. Women's club, directed this.

The fourth tableau presented Miss Nightingale in the Crimean war, with a squad of D. M. I. cadets directed by Major R. C. Reeves as soldiers in the Crimea.

The fifth tableau, "Honored by Queen Victoria," depicted royal recognition to Miss Nightingale's epochal service to humanity. Mrs. W. T. Hughes impersonated Queen Victoria and Miss Raney was Miss Nightingale. The Dorothea Henry chapter, D. A. R., Mrs. Hughes chairman, arranged this.

The sixth tableau, "Carried Home from Scutari," was arranged by the D. M. I. Major Reeves directing, and cadets of that school aiding.

The seventh and last of the episodes in the life of Miss Nightingale in showed the revolutionary advances in hospital organization and the nursing profession. Misses Mary Frances Bennett, little Doris McCormick and Captain Paul Workman, N. E. Bennett and Robert Williamson the other characters, with a squad of D. M. I. cadets, Miss Frances Bennett also figuring. Miss Frances Bennett arranged this.

An interlude was provided here, portraying the victor in the Olympic games in which the victor is praised. Messrs J. M. Thomas, Eugene Tate, James Craft and Miss Elizabeth Wiley impersonated the victor. Miss Wiley as a dancer.

Then the historical tableaux were resumed with "The Vision of a Woman" exalting the service of Sadie Heath Cabiness who introduced nursing in Virginia.

The first tableau in this series impersonated Miss Cabiness, Miss Julia Davis a patient and Miss Irma Lewis, an elder nurse. This was arranged by the Escaladers of Mt. Vernon church, Miss Mary Hylton Cabiness. The second tableau in the series, impersonating her coming to Richmond as operating-room nurse at the Old Dominion hospital. Misses Claudia Lewis (Miss Cabiness) and Misses Mollie Myers and Wilfred Tinsley appearing as other nurses.

While F. H. Wheaton, The Paragon, impersonated Dr. George B. Gillespie, the association of Rison Park, Miss J. C. Gillespie directing, staged this. Other tableaux in this group included:

Nurses Training School, Misses Elizabeth Taylor, Marion Boatwright, Barbara James, Brown, Mary Temple and Margaret Jordan nurses. Mrs. E. H. Miller for the Wednesday afternoon club directing.

Nurses Settlement House—Mrs. Theresa Bryant, Addie Reynolds, Susie Burrell, Mary Fields, Misses Lottie Smith and Clyde Jackson—Wesley Community house, Mrs. Sue Cole chairman.

Struggle to maintain charity work—Misses Myrtle Brown, and various men and boys figuring—Christian Endeavor society, Rev. J. W. Link directing.

Governor Signs Bill Standardizing Nursing—School superintendent, W. C. Griggs as Governor, J. Hoge Tyler as Meddlesome M. J. Perkins, William M. Brydon, Ernest Scales, F. L. Douthat and J. C. Gillespie impersonating nurses group.

The Voice of the Pioneer, Mrs. Walter Parker.

Third interlude, introducing folk dances for health-building, introducing boys and girls—arranged by Miss Pamela Gwynn.

Then followed a series of seven more tableaux showing the growth of the nursing profession and expansion of its work in the state. These were:

1. Miss Myrtle Taylor, School nurse. Miss Annie L. Mifflin, clinic Dr. L. O. Crumpler physician and Miss Hazel Updyke, nurse, with group of patients impersonated by ladies gentlemen and children. Red Cross nursing in peace-time—Charles M. Ridd, Jr. Misses Marie Fitzgerald, Laura Mass, Miss Eleanor Guerrant, Misses Maxine Katie Guerrant, Annie Carter, Mary Harvey, Mrs. Estie Dudley, Misses Home Leatta, Margaret Westbrooks, and Garrett Watkins and James Jennings juvenile roles.

2. The seventh and final tableau of the group presented various impersonations all illustrating phases of nursing.

Miss Fry of Richmond danceuse contributed an enjoyable specialty. Albert A. Mail directed the music.

Altogether the pageant surpassed the expectations of all and probably realized a snug sum for the benefit of the state.

Hospital Drive Goes "Over Top"

The following communication from the Rev. G. W. Good, president of the Providence Hospital association, a beneficent institution established and maintained by colored citizens for the care of the ill and injured of their own race tells effectively of the triumph of the recent drive to raise ten thousand dollars with which to enlarge the present institution on South Main street and also makes grateful acknowledgment to all participating:

The Providence Hospital association begs permission to inform the reading public through the columns of your valuable paper, of the final results of the $10,000 drive to build and equip the much needed annex to Providence Hospital. In our final checking up last Friday night, we were delighted beyond expression to find that our cash and subscriptions totalled $11,221.68.

The results were so wonderfully marvelous that our gratitude to God and his obedient subjects in Danville and surroundings, is inexpressible in words.

We employ this method, however, to record in a faint way, our thanks to Him for directing the forces of the drive to prove their love to Him by what they do for those right near and among them. We owe a lasting debt of gratitude to the Community Chest and its officers for the aid and encouragement given to the Danville Hospital. The Danville News for publications that were so valuable and helpful in placing the object of our drive before the public, to the public doctors who presented to the public a helpful account of the class of service rendered and the work done in our hospital, to the team workers who were so interested in the welfare of the sick and unfortunate that they sacrificed time and means until the goal was reached and the final work was done. To the individuals, lodges, churches, Sunday schools, classes and firms, that so cordially received and encouraged our workers, to the public at large for the beautiful spirit manifested toward our group in this, our first big effort, in behalf of our hospital.

Again we thank one and all for the assistance given and assure you that immediate steps will be taken to erect and equip the annex for which the time the June payment is made, the work will be ready to begin we trust, and pushed to a successful completion ere the August balance is paid. The encouragement furnished by our group in this drive furnishes a new chapter in the history of cordial relations existing between the races in Danville. It emphasizes the mutual helpfulness, willingness and readiness of the predominant race to encourage our group in making proper quarters for our sick and unfortunate as we endeavor to help ourselves.

Long live the Community Chest board! Long live the Danville Hospital and Bee! Long live the Danville News! Long live the Danville doctors! Long live the liberal givers to charitable organizations! Long live the big-hearted, self-sacrificing men and women of our own group that were so interested in the effort, and unfortunately that they gave of their time and means! Long live this good, cordial spirit between the Providence Hospital and its attaches races in Danville! Long live the Yours devotedly,

Providence Hospital Ass'n

HUMANITARIAN Thomas J. Coles Dies Suddenly

A private telegram received about 7 o'clock P. M. yesterday by Walter Coles, Jr., dated Cincinnati, O., 1:30 P. M. conveyed the startling intelligence of the death of Thomas J. Coles, formerly of Chatham, for two terms treasurer of Pittsylvania county, prominent in all branches of Masonry, as church and citizen. Mr. Coles was about 50 years of age.

Mr. Coles removed with his family from Chatham to Cincinnati about a year ago. The fatal summons came to him with startling suddenness, although the message announcing it merely stated that he had died suddenly of heart failure. He was known to be ill by his relatives and many friends in his native State and county. His brother, Walter Coles, Jr., of Coles Hill, this county, will leave today for the Ohio city unless meanwhile he receives instructions to the contrary.

His relatives are widely scattered, his brother, Russell J. Coles, being at Morehead City, N. C.; Harry C. Coles, another brother in New York. Walter Coles at Coles Hill and Mrs. Edwin Ambler, his only sister, at Monroe, in Amherst county, Va.

Mr. Coles was born at the old Coles Hill mansion dating back over a century since its construction and located seven miles northeast of Chatham. There his grandfather the first Walter Coles, soldier of 1812, member of Congress for five terms and widely known in his day, lived, and there his father, Walter Coles, lived and died. Thomas J. Coles was educated at the Kenmore High school, at Amherst courthouse, Va., at the Episcopal High school and at Cornell university. He was married about 22 years ago to Miss Mary Sinnickson, of Cincinnati, and had three children, a son, Walter Coles, until a year ago.

In 1910 Mr. Coles was appointed county treasurer by Judge E. J. Harvey to fill the unexpired term of W. D. Duncan, resigned, and then for another full term and then for another term, serving until 1920, and being an unusually efficient official. He was a communicant, a vestryman of Emmanuel Episcopal church, Chatham, and had long been active and prominent in Masonry, being a member of Pittsylvania lodge No. 24, A. F. & A. M. Chatham chapter, No. 56, Royal Arch Masons, Dove Commandery No. 7, Knights Templar and Acca Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., Richmond, Va.

Mr. Coles is survived by four children, the eldest, formerly Miss Mary Louisa Coles, now married; another daughter, a son, Richard S., and Harriett Russell, his youngest child.

Mr. Coles had been an exemplar of citizen and a wholesome influence in his community and was widely known and esteemed. The news of his death will bring genuine sorrow to many.

Virginia Farmers Behind With Work

The crop report for May compiled through the Virginia Crop Reporting service under the State department of agriculture shows the crops of Virginia to be delayed throughout the State due to the late season.

The production of wheat is estimated at 1,397,000 bushels on the basis of a condition 82 per cent of normal. The condition may improve depending upon the weather. This is compared with a yield of 1,145,000 last year and 1,375,000 bushels in 1922.

Poor Prices Cause Average Cut.

The wheat acreage is the smallest since 1909, being 12 per cent less than last year. The reduction is due to the poor price of wheat which was on April 15 $1.16 a bushel, on April 22 $1.12 last year. The United States winter wheat forecast is 34,000,000 bushels as against $72-340,000 last year.

Frequent rains in March and the first part of April have delayed farm work in Virginia. Plowing progress during the last part of April but cold weather has retarded it. It is estimated that on May 1, 73 per cent of the plowing had been completed as against 80 per cent last year.

Cold Weather Delays Seeding.

Only 48 per cent of the planting had been completed May 1, as against 53 per cent for the ten year average. Cold weather has prevented the farmers from planting a large part of the corn during the last part of April as is the custom.

Pastures are reported to have improved rapidly, but to have had a condition of 73 per cent on May 1 compared with 84 per cent for the ten year average. Hay and grasses have made a good start. The supply of hay on the farms is getting a start but it is expected that there will be a sufficient amount to meet the demands before the new crop. Only 11 per cent of last year's crop is on the farms compared with 16 per cent last year.

Optimistic Fruit Prospects.

The outlook for the fruit crop is excellent but definite predictions cannot be made at this time for many of the orchards are still in bloom. More attention seems to have been given to farm gardens than usual but due to the season they are late this year.

It is estimated that the losses of livestock from disease and exposure are slightly higher than last year, but less than the ten year average except for sheep and lambs, which suffered heavy losses during the cold, rainy weather of February and March.

NEGRO IS ARRESTED FOLLOWING COLLISION

(Special to The Bee)

SOUTH BOSTON, Va., May 14.—Charlie Thaxton, a colored man hailing from the Tar Heel State, accompanied by several of his friends, came to grief in South Boston yesterday on account of trying to beat the speed limit and to pass a modest flivver on the streets. Charlie was manipulating the steering wheel on a Studebaker, and seemed to have an idea that he could get by everything on the road, but the Coca Cola truck happened to be coming on the other side of the street and Charlie had to take his choice of either the truck heading on bumping into the John Henry. He decided that the Ford was the lesser of the two evils and ran his car into the rear of the buzz-wagon, which was being driven by W. L. Snead. The impact of the heavy touring car knocked the Ford up to a million, and as the result of the mishap, Charlie is languishing behind the bars in the city jail. He was promptly tried before Judge J. J. Godall who fined him $5 and the costs in the case, a further stipulation being that Charlie was to pay all the repair bills for having the flivver put back in good running condition. He was unable to pay the debt, so they placed him in jail and are holding the Studebaker until he can make the necessary financial arrangements.

Among the splendid records made, were the boys 50-yard dash which was made in 6.4 seconds, and the girls 100-yard dash which was made in 7.5 seconds. Clover won both the class A and B girls basket ball throws, with 61 feet and 2 inches in the first throw, and 68 feet and 2 inches in the second. In the 100-yard dash, South Boston won the running broad jump with 16 feet and 5 inches, and the pole vault with 8 feet and 8 inches. Hugh Stuart and Archibald Johnson had a walk-away win in the wheelbarrow race, while John Hunt was the South Boston ace in the running broad and high jumps and the pole vault. Spears, Hunt, Hill and Edmunds won the one mile relay race with a long lead. The weather man was especially good on the occasion and the day was as near perfect as it was possible for it to be. The recent rains had put the dust in the minority and the temperature was exactly right. The officials are commending for the splendid organization, the clock-work precision with which the events moved along. The students and spectators were all in a jolly good-natured mood, and every one seemed to be perfectly satisfied.

Field and Track Meet at Halifax Was Big Success

(Special to The Bee)

SOUTH BOSTON, Va., May 14.—The annual field and track meet of Halifax county, which was held yesterday at Edmundson Park, Halifax, was a big success. The events were witnessed by 2,000 people, and more than 200 automobiles were parked in the space allotted for this purpose, and a seething mass of humanity swayed too and fro from one event to another, from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. A large per cent of the crowd was composed of high school boys and girls whose care-free laughter and bursts of applause as one of their number won in one of the events rang continually through the park. There were no swathed in the smiles that wouldn't come off, and bedecked with the var-hued colors of their respective schools that coalesced so effectively with their sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks in portraying a picture of vivacity, youth and beauty. The band from Brookneal helped liven things up by the rendition of several catchy musical numbers, which also added to the popularity of the movements of the contestants on the athletic field. The opening event was a parade of the students from the various schools, who were to take part in the meet. Each group was sponsored by one of the teachers from their respective schools. Miss Annie Chaffin, of the Scottsboro high school, won the prize for having the best drilled team, and for being the best looking sponsor in the parade. The judges in this contest were H. J. Watkins, Dr. J. D. Haywood and Mayor James B. Wilborn.

DOCTORS AND CHIROPRACTORS OF NEW YORK IN A SQUABBLE

By ROBERT T. SMALL

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)
NEW YORK, May 14.—Since the conviction in this city of a chiropractor on the technical charge of manslaughter and his sentence to prison for a long term, a storm of controversy has been raging between practitioners of the "old school" of medicine and the disciples of the new cult.

Students of the convicted man have said that every doctor loses patients by death from time to time and that it would be just as reasonable to hang them up before courts of law to answer for a crime.

This contention, coupled with many other pleas for "fair play to the chiropractors" has aroused the ire of the medical profession, and has led to a general school meeting and then under the laws of most states must have had from three to four years of study in recognized and licensed schools of medicine and surgery.

Physicians say that on the other hand the records of this state are filled with cases of truck drivers and chauffeurs who suddenly have been branched out by dealers who have imposed upon them the faith and credulity of their patients.

Physicians of the recognized schools also are compelled to pass a thorough examination by a state board before being permitted to practice. They are being examined in all branches of medicine and are passed only after a searching probe into their mental, physical and moral equipment.

The doctors are bringing to light the "spinal aligners" and others outside the recognized schools under the same strict laws that have been laid on the physicians. They have been rather lax on the subject, however, and many laymen have come to regard the pleas and protests of the doctors as nothing more than stubborn opposition to anything new.

Medical societies have taken up the matter now and it is expected a drive will be made for more end of the country to the other to prevent any persons from attempting to treat disease unless that person has qualified under the old laws for doctors and surgeons. The physicians say that if after attending recognized medical schools, they graduate without the right to branch out and to be outside the "cult" there would not be the slightest objection. There is no objection today, they say, to spinal alignment as such, but they believe that when a practitioner is called in to attend a patient suffering from diphtheria he should have enough general knowledge of medicine to see not only that his patient gets the proper treatment but that the public at large is protected from the possibilities of contagion and epidemic.

It was in the diphtheria case that a chiropractor recently was arrested. He frankly admitted that he had no portion of the spine out of alignment and was engaged in treating that when the child became so ill a physician was called. The doctor said it was too late. The child died within a short time.

The medical associations have shown that chiropractors are taught by mail through correspondence courses and they say it is wrong for any person so taught to come to their patients to treat all types of maladies. The physicians say they are not fighting "new fangled ideas" but they are anxious that all persons be treated alike under the law and be compelled to come up to the same standard of requirements.

Many chiropractors from all sections of the country have come to the aid of their convicted brother here and are urging him to take his case to the highest courts of the land.

Keen Street Church Revival Is Drawing

Rev. Richard A. Kelly, of Louisville, Ky., who conducted the Keen Street Baptist church revival which has greeted him since he began the services on Sunday. The church was so crowded that additional seats had to be brought in.

This morning he addressed a fair-sized congregation on "The Kingdom of God" and tonight he will preach on "Sin Universal." Six admissions to the church were recorded last night. One feature of the revival is the choral choir of members divided into three groups, adult, intermediate and juniors.

The evangelist tomorrow will at the Chapel exercises at Averett College.

The field and track meet was held under the direction of G. A. Carlton, athletic director of the South Boston high schools, and C. H. Kauffmann, agricultural superintendent of the Turberville high school.

Seven out of the eight schools in the county were represented, South Boston, Clifton Springs, Turberville, North Staunton, Clover, Halifax and Scottsboro. Oak Level was not represented. The points counts, with the exception of the three-legged races and the wheelbarrow race, which counted one point each for the team finishing in first place, were: 1st, 5 points; 2nd, 3; 3rd, 2; 4th, 1. The South Boston team emerged winner of the event by a small margin of points in their favor. In accordance with the rules and regulations, the Halifax high school which now holds the loving cup, will turn it over to the South Boston high school. At the end of ten years the cup will become the property of the high school whose team has won the cup the most number of times.

Bold Tire Robbery Reported to Police

The garage of the Auto Tire Sales Company, on Loyal street, was boldly burglarized late last night. The idea that the thieves had of the building and filled it with tires tubes and other accessories, valued probably at one thousand dollars, then made their escape. The thieves displayed unusual boldness. They broke the main door of the building and made their way to the rear, lifted a window and entered the building. Then he removed the nuts on the hinges on which the main door hangs, and the door was bodily removed and after a car, the truck was backed in and the work of plundering began. The thieves also filled up their van with gasoline and oil. The police have learned that as late as 11:30 o'clock the building was intact. Shortly after that hour, however, some men were seen in that vicinity, though their exact purpose is not known. The police are now looking for the man. Detective Campbell and Nelson held a visit to the scene this morning and are understood to be following several leads.

Burton J. Hall Dies In Sleep

Burton J. Hall, aged 67, and for the past two years a resident of this city, was found dead in bed at his home, 1208 West Lee street, at six o'clock this morning. The distressing discovery was made by his wife. Mr. Hall had been in failing health recently but his death was not expected.

Mr. Hall retired last night at his usual hour having expressed himself during the morning that he was feeling better. Death claimed him peacefully. He was 6 feet and 4 inches tall and had a few white hairs. Apparently the end had come several hours before his body was discovered. Mr. Hall came to Danville from Kentucky, where he was born. He was a carpenter by trade and was a member of the local lodge of the B. O. E. F. He leaves a widow and four sons, all of this city. George Hall, Henry Hall, Charles Hall and Jesse Hall. A daughter, Mrs. Alice Hazlewood, of Washington, D. C., also survives. The funeral will be held at 4 p. m. tomorrow.

James W. Lewis Dies In Far West

A telegram was received here today announcing the death in San Francisco, California, of James W. Lewis for many years well known in Pittsylvania county where he was born. Details of his death are lacking but it is believed that he died of a heart attack. Mr. Lewis of this city, a cousin said, died in Danville and that it probably would reach Danville on train No. 28 on Sunday night. The burial is to take place at Brookneal where Mr. Lewis was born and raised and he will be laid to rest beside his wife on a day and hour to be announced later.

Mr. Lewis went West about five years ago in order to live with his only living daughter, Mrs. Harry Barron. He had recently suffered from high blood pressure. He was born April 28, 1854 near Brookneal and was married to Miss Watson of Henry county in 1877. She died in 1882. They had seven children but only three survive, these being his daughter and two sons, I. F. Lewis, of Pelham, N. C., and W. H. Lewis of Kentucky.

PRIVATE LIFE INTENTION OF POINCARÉ NOW

French Premier, In Retirement, to Quit Politics and Take Rest.

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, May 14.—Premier Poincaré intends to withdraw from politics for the time being, taking a complete rest and it is understood he will request a leave from the Senate so as not to appear in the debates following his retirement as head of the government.

M. Poincaré has received requests from all over the world, particularly from America, to write articles giving both his views on European politics and reminiscences of his twelve years as a government minister. He will resume his political activities when he considers the time ripe. Meanwhile the question of who is to succeed to the premiership is still unanswered and it provides ample food for speculation among the deputies who are already beginning to prepare for the opening of the chamber on June 2.

It is also receiving the full attention of President Millerand, who it is understood will take an early opportunity to confer with M. Herriot, the radical leader, on the political situation, so the interregnum between the resignation of the Poincaré and the formation of a new cabinet will be as short as possible.

The composition of the new ministry depends largely upon the attitude of the Socialists, who form a large section of the bloc of the left. It has always been a cardinal principle of that party never to accept office and a conference will be called at an early date to decide whether the rule shall be waived. While some eminent Socialists, such as Paul Boncour, Jean Renaudie and Paul Aubriot are not expected to be exacting in their demands other such as Leon Blum and Vincent Auriol will insist upon the party having at least three important portfolios, those of interior, finance and foreign affairs.

There is yet another consideration. The Socialists next door neighbors in the chamber, the communists, cannot be left out of account, and the main principle of the new cabinet will be to call upon the new chamber for a pronouncement at the earliest opportunity on the following points:

First, withdrawal of troops from the Ruhr; second, resumption of relations with Soviet Russia; and third, general amnesty for political offenders, including Cailaux.

For all these reasons political observers are inclined more and more to see a solution of the crisis in a ministry headed by M. Briand and supported by the moderate left and advanced right groups, which would give 300 odd votes.

Andre Tardieu, following his defeat for re-election, has decided to quit politics, where he would go into business, but he declared today that he planned to go to Vitel, a small town in Vosges for the summer and that if he went to the United States, it will be later in the year.

Annual Baptist Convention Meet On at Atlanta, Ga.

Congress to strengthen instead of weaken the prohibition laws.

Dr. Douglas Freeman, editor of the Richmond, Va., News Leader, flayed both sides of the modernist-fundamentalist controversy, declaring that "if preachers who know nothing of science and scientists who know nothing of religion, will attend to their own affairs, there will be no controversies."

"Idle preachers are responsible for all these fads, fables and fancies," he declared. "If they preach the gospel there will be no dogmatism. It is puppyism grown old."

"There is no such controversy among Southern Baptists and the first man who starts a kind of 'ism' should be sent north of the Potomac River and made to stay there. I do not believe that fundamentalism is 'believing in the credibility of Judges and the edibility of Jonah.'"

Dr. Freeman urged his hearers to "get back to the Bible" asserting that simply because we have a minister must not deprive us of our ministers. He also made a plea for co-operation with other churches denying that the Southern Baptist is aligned against other denominations.

"Baptists," he declared, "do not care so much for religion in education as they do for the religion of education because education means emancipation of the mind and therefore the enlargement of the spirit."

The rich church forgetting its obligation of evangelism in its smug hypocrisy of 'money made religion' came in for a part of Dr. Freeman's condemnation. He compared it with a refrigerator and the "evangelistic church with a radiator."

In urging the United States to join the League of Nations, Senator Walter F. George of Georgia, pictured the league without this country's participation as a combine of European powers which eventually will control the spiritual, commercial and political progress of the world. It is not only America's Christian duty to enter the league, he declared, but to her advantage that she do so without delay.

Referring to "the greatest American President, as the author of the League of Nations, Senator George drew prolonged applause from the floor.

Congressman William D. Upshaw of Georgia in seconding the motion for adoption of the prohibition resolution, declared that "none of the 37 varieties of bills providing for the return of beverages with more than the prescribed alcoholic content ever would see the light of day."

BIG GAINS MADE IN DRIVE SAYS MULLINS

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Ga., May 14.—Making a strong plea for successful culmination of the $75,000,000 campaign, President E. Y. Mullins in his annual address before the Southern Baptist convention at its opening session here today, called upon the churches of the south to "gather up in remaining months of the campaign all the energies in our power and go forth to a great victory."

"We have made great gains," Dr. Mullins said. "Some one says the most depressing expression in the English language is the phrase 'I cannot' and the most inspiring phrase, 'I can.' We have learned the meaning, in a measure, of both. But the new sense of power has come, beyond all question."

Declaring the attention of mankind has been challenged by a sublime undertaking and daring commitment of faith, the speaker asserted that the nomination has come into a new sense of unity, power and a new position of influence in the world, through the measure of success already achieved in the campaign.

The raising of the $75,000,000 was begun at a convention held here in 1919. It closes on November 30, this year.

"We are at a great hour," Dr. Mullins said. "May God give us the spirit of sacrifice."

In a discourse devoted solely to the mission of the Southern Baptist convention, Dr. Mullins stirred the large audience to enthusiasm by a statement of the aims and purposes of the denomination—both undertaken and planned for the future.

He declared that the convention should strive for a demonstration of success of religious democracy on the largest scale known in Christian history, for Christian unity, the true relation between spiritual cause and effect and for sacrifice of a great people for a great cause.

The campaign, which funds are devoted to all missionary objects is "our crucial test," he declared.

Traffic Box, Cop and All Spilled As Auto Hits It

Traffic Officer Arch Morgan went down with his colors flying this morning at 11 o'clock when Mrs. Nannie Stokes, of Schoolfield, driving a touring car, struck the traffic box as she emerged from North Union street into Main.

Apparently she cut the corner too closely and Officer Morgan who braved the ardors of service in the trenches in France almost became a casualty. The car knocked the traffic box off its foundations and spilled it in the street. The officer was not hurt and emerged more or less shaken from the accident. He now knows how it feels to be at home in the parlor and to experience a cyclone, for the effects were about the same. The box is set on the corner of the street, walk and just out into the street. Many a driver has had a close call striking it in rounding the corner too closely. Repairs will be made and the wires carrying current to illuminate it will be resting.

NEVER WITHOUT BLACK-DRAGHT

West Virginia Lady Uses It For Headache and Sour Stomach.

"Nothing Like It," She Says.

Hurricane W. Va.—Mrs. Ida Chaney who lives on her fruit farm not far from Big Hurricane creek, near here, made the following statement not long ago:

"My sons and I have used Black-Draught for a number of years and we are never without it. I use it for headache and sour stomach. When I eat something that sours just a pinch of Black-Draught sets me straight."

"Not long ago I sent to my sister in Ohio. I took a severe headache on the train. When I got to my sister's I sent for some Black-Draught and took a big dose. Next morning I felt fine and enjoyed my visit. My sister had never heard of Black-Draught, so she began taking it and says it is all I said it was."

"After the 'flu' my sons complained of their joints aching. They began taking Black-Draught and think there is nothing like it. They take it in broken doses every spring and are seldom sick."

"The other night my little grandson had cold. I gave him a small dose of Black-Draught for two or three nights and he got all right. I can't say enough for it. I feel it has saved me dollars and suffering besides."

Quotations Flash From Trade Pits

In three and three-fifths seconds a quotation is flashed from the wheat pit at the Chicago Board of Trade, lower photo, to the blackboard, upper left. In another second farmers get the report from the radio reporter, upper right.

CHICAGO, May 14.—In less than five seconds after a transaction is completed at the Board of Trade here, farmers throughout the middle west, and farther, are listening in on the results by radio.
 This exemplifies the outstanding advantage of wireless to the country folk.
 It is a fixed institution here, so far as activities of the board of Trade are concerned. It is keeping the farmers up to the minute, almost up to the second, informed as to prevailing prices at which they might sell their crops or stock.
 The pioneer in speeding up this information to those most closely concerned about it is the Chicago Board of Trade. Through its station, WDAP, atop the Drake hotel, the Board of Trade is keeping the farmers in closest possible contact with all factors that might affect the prices of their products.

Owens Own Station
 The Board of Trade started broadcasting in the spring of 1922 through station KYW. Success was almost immediate. It encouraged the directors to buy WDAP for its private use. Results were so satisfactory that it is now one of the most complete broadcasting stations in America.
 This speed in letting the grower know what is being done to his produce is the result of co-operation between the telegraph ticker and the radio. Three and three-fifths seconds after a broker flashes a transaction to an official recorder, the quotations are ticked off on the tape alongside the blackboard where they are recorded.

DEATH OF J. C. WALKER

RINGGOLD, Va., May 8.—James Colure Walker who had been in declining health for about seven years, became critically ill April 30th and passed away on May 7th, 1924. WALTER P. TUDOR

FOR CONGRESS FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
SUBJECT TO DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY, AUGUST 5, 1924

To the Voters of the Fifth Congressional District:

I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination for representative in Congress for the Fifth District of Virginia, subject to the Democratic primary to be held on Tuesday, August 5th. If nominated and elected, as I hope to be, I unhesitatingly pledge myself to support every measure which beneficially effects the interests and the welfare of my constituency.

The Fifth District is overwhelmingly and decisively an agricultural one, and naturally one in which the advancement of the interests and the prosperity of the farming population is and should be the first and the fundamental consideration. A native of Patrick county, Virginia, I spent my boyhood on a farm and have always been in cordial and intelligent sympathy with the men and women upon whose welfare and prosperity that of all other classes and occupations fundamentally depend. If elected to Congress, it will be my pleasure to support earnestly and as effectively as I am capable of doing, every measure framed in the interests of justice to and consideration for the farmer—the lightening of his burdens and particularly all legislation which will tend to reduce the high cost of everything he has to purchase or to advance the price of what he produces. I favor co-operation in all things. In this connection I deem it timely to say that I am opposed to class legislation of every kind, and will stand or fall on adherence to justice to all.

In this connection permit me to say that I am under the domination of no clique, faction or interest, and, if elected, will be absolutely free to advocate and vote for any legislation which appeals to me as just and in the interest of the constituency which honored me. In other words, I would as a representative be their servant, not their master, and at all times open to suggestion and advice with respect to pending or proposed legislation, or to legislation which may and ought to be proposed.

For the benefit of those who do not know, I beg to state that I have had five and a half years experience in the service of our Government in the Engineering Department during the construction of the Panama Canal, and three and a half years in the employ of the United Fruit Company in the Republic of Honduras. For the past seven years I have been located in the City of Danville, Virginia, as general agent of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company, during which time I have had the handling of hundreds of thousands of dollars, which I have done to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Very respectfully, your fellow citizen,

Walter P. Tudor

THE NUT CRACKER

BY JOE WILLIAMS

The hot summer days have their compensation. They at least silence the bird who boasts of taking an ice-cold plunge every morning.

A Boston checker player had to retire from the national tournament because of exhaustion. Possibly he hadn't done enough road work.

Greece is sending a one-armed relief to this country, as if there weren't enough one-armed relics among the big league pitchers already.

A Cleveland golfer was killed by lightning the other day and the tragedy would have been going so badly if he hadn't been going so badly at the time.

Connie Mack never dreamed that his remodeled athletic machine would turn out to be a submersible.

The Sportsman

By WALTER CAMP

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee.) NEW YORK, May 14.—The keen interest being displayed by Americans in this country's Olympic games efforts is not surprising to those who have kept a finger on the pulse of the athletic world. The Drake relay and the Penn relay, held on the same day recently, gathered no less than five thousand spectators, while other college meets throughout the country were sending forth teams that aggregated thousands. Besides the two big relays, the Drake-Kansas, Illinois-Penn and Drake-Kansas, Illinois and Ohio State also have adopted the annual relay idea.

The writer predicts that another year or two will see great relay meets being held in every section of the country. For the benefit of new devotees of field and track sports who are following Olympic news for the first time the following translations in measurements of the ubiquitous French "meter" are set down:

The 100 meter sprint is 3 yards longer than our 100 yard dash. The 200 meter sprint is 2 yards short of our 220 yard run. The 400 meter is three yards short of the American quarter mile. The 800 meter is six yards short of the American half mile. The 1,500 meter is 120 yards short of the American mile. The 5,000 meter is three miles and 150 yards. The marathon is our regular measurement of 2 1/2 miles, 385 yards.

Give the American boy some credit for discrimination; he never picks out a wrestler or a six-day bike racer for his idol.

Speaking of politics, Mr. Hiram Johnson reminds us of the pitcher who had a lot of stuff but couldn't get the ball over the plate.

Habe Ruth is going to be a farmer when he quits the game. Well, none of the pitchers have been able to make a nick out of him yet.

It is said that Young Strubling learned to fight by watching the movies. And yet we have never seen him throw a custard pie.

Run everything out is a baseball preachment. Unfortunately this doesn't apply to the noisy goof who leaps up in front of you at the very moment the star steals home with the winning run.

The 110 meter hurdles is practically our regular high hurdles. It is short of our 440, and has 3 foot hurdles as compared with our 2-1/2 foot hurdles.

The Decathlon contest includes the 100 meter dash, 110 meter hurdle, broad jump, shot put, high jump, discus, pole vault and javelin. The Pentathlon includes the 200 meter dash, 1500 meter run, broad jump, javelin and discus.

DYNAMITE SLUGGERS LOSE TO S. S. 8-0

The Dynamite Sluggers went down in defeat at the hands of the S. S. ball club yesterday afternoon. The game played at the R. E. Lee school grounds. By tying the score in the sixth inning, the "Sluggers" had a good chance to win the game, but the S. S. boys made three runs in the eighth frame, and put the game on "ice." The "Dynamite Sluggers," however, made a furious ninth inning rally, and, with men out, scored a man, leaving the bases full. But Furgerson pitched a light ball after another man on. Shannon, for the "Dynamite Sluggers," pitched good ball throughout the contest, receiving raged support, however, Furgerson held the "Sluggers" to two bingles, although he was wild.

O. Brown got a homer in the fourth round. Score by innings: R. H. E. S. S. 210 101 0-0-3; 6; 2. D. S. 100 211 001-5-2; 6.

The batteries: For "Dynamite Sluggers"—Shannon and Critz; Williams; S. S.—M. Furgerson and P. Furgerson. Umpires: Brown and Kushner.

BLACK GOLD BACKERS VERY ENTHUSIASTIC

(By The Associated Press.) LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 13.—Partisans of Black Gold, to win the Golden Jubilee Kentucky Derby Saturday were jubilant tonight over the showing of the Louisiana Derby winner in a contest here today with a field of Derby candidates, over a mile route.

The diminutive son of Black Toney-Usell stepped the mile in 1:37 4-5, within one and three-fifths seconds of the Churchill Downs record for the distance over a slow track, to cash ahead of Wild Aster. King Gorm II was third.

Mrs. R. M. Hoots' Derby hope swung into the lead at the head of the stretch and won easily. It was his initial start here.

Cloister, Colonel Gilmore, Dudley, Ghde, and Princess Doreen were the also rans.

For the Game's Sake

By LAWRENCE PERRY

BY LAWRENCE PERRY

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee.) NEW YORK, May 14.—Pennsylvania's defeat of Harvard's varsity, junior varsity and 180 pound crews on the Charles River basin on Monday was a real triumph.

Various parties showed that form. It was expected to show on the Housatonic against Yale and failed to do so. But the combination redeemed itself at Cambridge showing in a way which enabled the locals to defeat Brooklyn 3 to 1 in the final game of the series.

Score: R. H. E. Chicago 000 010 000—3 6 1. Brooklyn 000 010 000—1 9 2. Decatur, Dickerman and Taylor; Keen and Hartnett.

Whether or not it means anything significant as affecting the future of intercollegiate athletics, the fact remains that an increasing number of men who have had experience as athletes are speaking against the present day system.

Arthur Howe, former Yale football captain and hockey player, and sponsor of the article, which he says is the conduct of intercollegiate athletics and concludes, "the highly paid professional coach has been the most active factor in this development and is to be paid for coaching at all let them be members of the faculty and let them receive the pay of faculty members and see the problems of athletic life from the point of view of the highest purposes of education."

Bill Bingham, former track athlete at Harvard and now track coach at Cambridge holds the coach less at fault than the alumni who demand victories. "I know of no evil," says Bingham, "that keeps so many of the type of men from making of coaching a career as the burden imposed upon them of winning contests. A coach inevitably feels that his existence as an athletic instructor will be in jeopardy if he loses. The team must always win and one defeat is remembered longer than ten victories."

Those who seek to improve college athletics must consider first of all, says Bingham, the influence of this fact upon the mind of the coach.

RALEIGH WINS SECOND GAME OF TWIN BILL

RALEIGH, May 13.—Raleigh and Winston-Salem divided honors in a double header here this afternoon. The visitors won the first game easily by the score of 9 to 1, while the Capitals captured the second contest, a seven inning affair by agreement by the count of 2 to 0. Incidentally it was Raleigh's second victory of the season.

In the first contest, Pitcher Littlejohn for the Twins held the locals to five scattered hits, good only for one run while the visitors pounded Elliott for thirteen bingles good for four runs. Long made a sensational one handed running stab of a fly against the fence which kept Raleigh from scoring two more runs. Standeart made some pretty plays around third.

The nightcap affair was featured by the brilliant pitching of Garrison for the Capitals, while Pitcher Thompson for Winston also twirled brilliantly. However, Garrison bested him for one out in the final inning. With one out Allison singled, Anderson walked and Standeart singled filling the bases. But Garrison succeeded himself and forced Staley to send a high fly to Barrett. Lenly, pinch-hitting for Meyers, whiffed.

The Capitals scored the two runs in the fourth. Duncan was safe on a throw, Matzen sacrificed, Barrett flied out to center. Rickes, Johnson and Dean singled in succession, scoring Duncan and Rickes. The box scores of the two games follows:

YANKEES AND BROWNS TO PLAY FIRST IMPORTANT SERIES IN MAJORS TODAY

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, May 14.—Masked under ceremonies of presenting a diploma to Babe Ruth in acknowledgment of his selection as the most valuable player in the American League last season, and of floating the first world's championship banner the New York Americans ever won, the Yankees and Browns clash today in the first important series of the campaign in the majors.

The champions sloughed slightly yesterday in losing a 7 to 5 contest to Chicago, and broke a winning streak of five games. Babe Ruth hit his eighth homer and his mates outthrew the Sox but the latter, with Eddie Collins starring, reinforced ordinary box work with sharp fielding that included five double plays. Bibb Falk, a substitute fielder, accounted for four Sox scores with two home runs.

The Browns, with Dave Danforth winning his fourth straight start, beat Boston 5 to 3 with the same steady attack that lifted them from seventh place to second. The win brought Sisler's team to within two and one-half games of the champions and converted the series which begins today into a direct fight for the leadership.

The Giant-Cub game in Chicago will decide second place in the National League. McGraw's worried outfit lost their fourth consecutive game to St. Louis yesterday, 8 to 3 and the Cubs pulled to within half a game of second place by defeating Brooklyn, 3 to 1. It was a brilliant pitchers' duel won by Keen, who allowed only 3 hits while his mates were bunched four of their five off decatur in one inning.

The Cardinal victory was Halnes second win in four days from the Giants, whose young pitchers failed again.

All teams in both leagues were engaged yesterday. Cincinnati took a one and one half contest lead in the National by coming from behind in the last 3 innings to win a 4 to 3 game for Carl Mays against Philadelphia. Pittsburgh hit behind Cooper and defeated Boston 5 to 1. Traynor hit a home run.

The Athletics lost their twelfth straight game when Shaute edged aris in a picture hducmf mtwpjcs in a pitchers' battle. Cleveland won 3 to 2.

Modridge outpitched three Detroit pitchers and Washington beat the Tigers, 6 to 3. Three consecutive pinch hitters hit the Senator twirler for singles in the seventh inning.

CARPENTIER TO START TRAINING ON ARRIVAL

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, May 14.—George Carpentier, French light heavyweight, who arrives here today from New York, plans to begin preliminary training at once for his bout May 31 with Tommy Gibbons at Michigan City, Ind. Gibbons is a local favorite, and Carpentier, who claims a prior right to his services, do not interfere.

The French fighter with Jack Curley, his American manager, took a train for Chicago at New York yesterday after being met on his arrival from France by Gibson Tunney and his attorneys. They left without attending a conference arranged with Gibson for the afternoon.

Gibson declared the matter is in the hands of his attorneys and that Tunney and himself will fight to protect their interests.

Carpentier plans to spend several days here in light work out and gymnasium work before beginning intensive training for the match at his Michigan City camp.

Meanwhile Tommy Gibbons who has been training at Grand Beach, Mich., comes to Chicago today to referee elimination bouts in the sixth corps field area to determine bors to compete in the final Olympic trials at Boston next week.

(By The Associated Press.)
LEXINGTON, Ky., May 14.—Down here in Kentucky it is the custom of turf enthusiasts each year to cast around for a promising three-year-old thoroughbred upon which is conferred the "Hope of the West" for the running of the Derby. Such a choice is accorded a heavy backing on sentiment—even when good judgment needs must persuade the partisans to let an "invader" carry their wagers for them.

Approach of the Golden Jubilee renewal of the classic Saturday finds native sons well supplied with "defenders" from which to choose a favorite, the elimination of Wise Counsellor notwithstanding.

Since Black Gold won eight lengths ahead and "Going Away" from seven other classic candidates in a one-mile derby trial over a slow track yesterday in the fast time of 1:27 4-5, derby stock of the diminutive black Toney-Useit colt has soared rapidly.

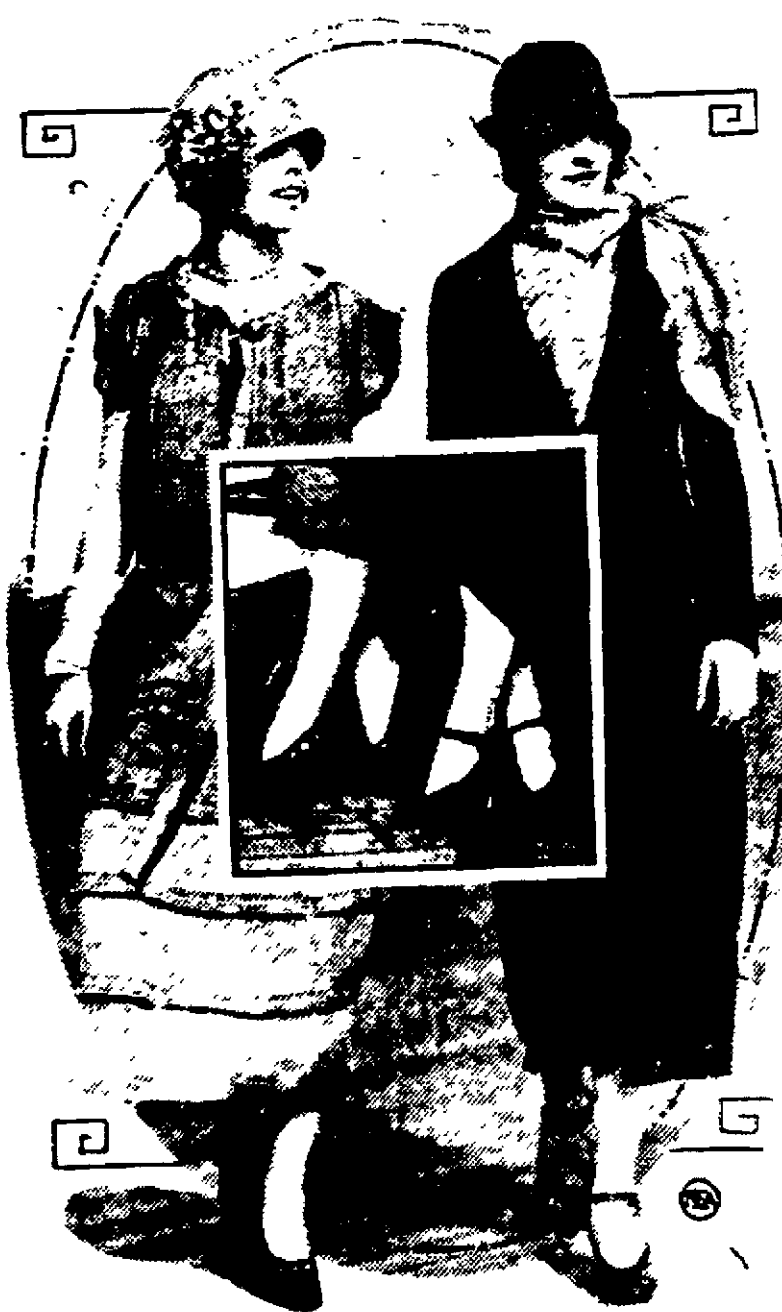

The Louisiana Derby winner ran an additional quarter mile finishing the derby route in 2:08 2-5 pulled up.

E. R. Bradley, Beau Butler is another favorite that must be considered and Alkwood, C. Bruce Head's derby eligible gained strong support by winning the blue grass stakes at Lexington.

Glotzbach Wins His First Public Bout

(By The Associated Press.)
SAN JOSE, Calif., May 14.—Floyd Glotzbach, chauffeur, former husband of Madame Margaret Matzenauer, opera singer, won his first public bout here last night when he knocked out Danny Gallagher, Oakland, in two seconds. The men are heavyweights.

The Del Monte chauffeur whom Mme. Matzenauer referred to as her "wild mustard," is being coached as a prospective contender for the heavyweight title against Jack Dempsey.

RICHMOND BASEBALL PARK UNDER WATER

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., May 14.—Mayo Island Park, home of the Richmond baseball club of the Virginia League, tonight was under four feet of water, as a result of the rampage of the James River yesterday.

However, with the local club on the road until May 27, there will be no delay to the league schedule. It having been announced tonight by W. B. Bradley, builder of the park, and a former owner of the Richmond Colts, and also a former president of the Virginia League, that the park should again be in condition for play in about ten days.

The game scheduled for Saturday between Richmond University and Hampden Sidney has been cancelled owing to high water in the park.

Grandstand Gaff

HARRIS was right yesterday and by right we mean more so than certain Southern negroes do referring to "Lucky" after making "Joe" with the galloping dominoes three times in succession. "Cudge" certainly had the Bulls by the horns for he gave up only four hits. Until the seventh stanza Bill Pierre's gang was utterly at a loss to solve his shoots, getting only one bingle until that time.

Looks like Murph is going to get a secure hold on second place. If only someone can check those flying Hi Pointers, then everything would be settin' pretty. Just wait until the locals go down to the Furnture Makers city tomorrow for three games. If Danville can only win today, things will happen the other three days that certainly will make things look different.

Local fans will have their first opportunity to see the new hurler, Shoaf in action. He has proven that it is a pitcher who can shove a wicked-twister across the platter and while Bill

Pierre disposed of his pitching ace yesterday and another on Monday. The Murphs should have a good chance of making it two out of three.

Fans are beginning to think that Murph has made a real find in that Kid Tangeman. He certainly made two great catches in his territory yesterday by racing breakneck speed and grabbing a couple of foul flies, both hit by Sessions. It would be safe to say no other rightgardener would have come "within a mile" of catching them.

And just look at the way Inman is holding down the hot corner. Looks as though his hands are magnet for any time a ball comes down his way and does not get gobbled up, something is sadly wrong. Just can't get 'em by him, that's all. He had six chances yesterday and three of them the most difficult ever hit down that territory. Just keep your eye on that boy. If you want to see some classy performing, And notice how close in he plays, too.

Shelton must also be credited with pitching a good game, for Danville was lucky in getting her three runs. Hitting at opportune times it what did it.

Besides getting a homer, Eddie Regan backed against the fence in left center and nabbed Brummitt's high one, which looked good for a homer as it sailed out from the bat. A few more inches and it would have meant some sort of a hit.

CORNET TAMES LIONS

BERLIN, Germany, May 14.—Dr. Max Sostano, cornetist, was troubled by stagefright. To overcome this handicap he gave a private concert in a lion's cage at Hamburg. The lions at first snarled suspiciously at the cornet, but later, as the doctor began triple-tonguing feats on the horn, they stood off spellbound in a corner of the cage.

Knocking uncertainty out of lubrication

Millions of people buy motor oils every day. How many really get standard value and service for their money?

"Standard" Polarine oils and greases are standard. They still lead in popularity in spite of all the new lubricants of recent years. The hard-headed, clear-thinking majority will always pick the known in preference to the unknown—the time-tried and proved in preference to the experimental. "Standard" Polarine buyers do get standard value.

There's one type of "Standard" Polarine Oil which is right for your type of motor. Your dealer's chart tells you which it is. Sound common sense suggests that you use it regularly—and knock the uncertainty, once and for all, out of your lubrication question.

MUCH INTEREST IN MURPHY'S SUCCESSOR

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 13.—The special committee of seven appointed by Tamman Hall to report on a choice for leader to succeed the late Charles F. Murphy, completed the hearings of the district leaders this afternoon. It was the report around Tiger headquarters that a big majority of the sub-chiefs were for surrogate James A. Foley.

Tonight the seven committee members called upon the surrogate at his home but nothing was given out as a result of the visit. Daniel L. Ryan, secretary of the hall, said, no definite announcement would be made either by surrogate Foley or the executive committee until after the smaller body had reported tomorrow afternoon. The full committee of sixty-nine members will convene at four o'clock, after hearing the report and then announce its decision.

The center of the pressure of water against the side of the containing vessel is at two-thirds the depth from the surface.

TODAY'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By HARRY B. HUNT

WASHINGTON, May 14.—All semblance of administration control over Congress has gone by the board.

Against the most resolute opposition of administration leaders on the floor, and in the face of a virtual demand by President Coolidge that the Mellon tax bill be enacted as written, the Senate threw out the Mellon rates on surtaxes and substituted Democratic rates proposed by Simmons of North Carolina.

On the same afternoon, the House, invoking the new rule passed under insurgent pressure at the opening of the session, discharged the Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee from further consideration of an important amendment to the transportation act and ordered it to the floor for consideration.

Just one day later, in the Senate, administration forces which had blocked employment of Francis J. Heney to assist the Couzens committee in an investigation of the Treasury bureau, which collects taxes and administers prohibition, were routed, and the way cleared for another sensational inquiry.

Party lines were hopelessly scrambled in this fight, which resulted in an authorization for employment of outside counsel.

Since it was the proposal to employ outside counsel that drew a heated protest from Mellon to Coolidge and a caustic letter of criticism of the Senate from the president, this action can be construed only as the Senate's declaration of independence from White House and cabinet domination.

The new tax bill, as put through the Senate, might be properly labeled The Mellon Bill, per Simmons.

Administration Republicans, however, from the very face with which they view the legislation, apparently regard it chiefly as Persimmons. For certainly it is a bitter dose.

Incidentally, the enactment of the higher surtax rates proposed by Senator Furnifold McLendel Simmons, A. B. LL. D. of New Bern, North Carolina, brings into prominence again the dean of the Democratic Party in the Senate.

Simmons, who is just past 70 rounds out this session four full terms in the upper house—24 years. His runner-up for continuity of service on the Democratic side is his North Carolina colleague, Lee Slater Overman, who also has just turned 70. Overman, however, has only 22 years to his credit.

Physically, Simmons is the senatorial Lilliputian. He stands barely over five feet in height. When seated, he is almost lost to sight behind his desk, and when standing he measures up in height to the average senator when seated.

But what he lacks in bodily physique, he makes up for in mental power.

Seventeenth Article
Land Bank Bonds.

Grading very high among conservative investments are the bonds issued under the Federal Farm loan act. They are of two classes, Federal Land Bank bonds and Joint Stock Land Bank bonds. There is a sharp distinction between the two. The Federal Land Bank bonds, twelve in number, are jointly liable for the bonds issued by any one of their number. There is no such joint liability among the Joint Stock Land Bank bonds. The Federal Land Bank bonds are operated for the benefit of the stockholder-borrowers; the Joint Stock Land Bank bonds are operated for private profit.

Loans made by both classes of banks are strictly regulated by law. Mortgages must be secured by first lien and must not exceed in amount 50 per cent. of land value and 50 per cent. of the permanent insurable improvement.

Income from bonds of both banks is exempt from all federal and state taxation. There has been some criticism of the policy of allowing tax exemption to bonds issued by the Joint Stock banks on the ground that such exemption is a subsidy to a private enterprise. This, however, does not touch the merit of the investment. For investors who require a high degree of safety and to whom exemption from taxation is an object these Land Bank bonds are very attractive, the obligations of the Federal Land Bank being entitled to the slightly higher rating.

One other important point should be considered in connection with these banks and their securities. That is the investment status of the bonds. The Joint Stock Land Bank bonds have been offered to investors in all parts of the country on an attractive yield basis. Undoubtedly they have merit but such stock should not be bought without a clear understanding of just what kind of an investment it is.

A well-managed Joint Stock Land Bank, and as far as the writer knows, they are all well-managed, ought to make a good profit on the money invested but there is no guarantee expressed or implied on the part of the government or anybody else of any profit at all. The stockholders are partners in the enterprise and take the same kind of a risk as stockholders in any other business. And moreover, some Joint Stock Land Bank bonds are more profitable than others.

Finally there is a double liability attaching to the holding of stock in these banks just as there is in stock in national banks. While this does not seem now ever likely to be of any practical importance it is well to keep it in mind.

NEW YORK COTTON.

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 14.—The cotton market opened firm today at an advance of 11 to 25 points on buying promoted by bullish private weekly reviews of crop progress, firmer ratings of foreign exchange rates and expectation of a rise in domestic consumption figures for April.

May sold up to 31.40 and October to 25.10 making net advances of 13 to 25 points but the circulation of 1900 bales notices representing liquidation and unloading scattered the market and the market. May reacted to 31.00 and October to 24.95 during the early trading.

Liverpool reported a small market with some hedging, selling of old crop notes, but London and Continental buying of new crop deliveries.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, May 14.—The cotton market opened slightly higher although Liverpool was only about as firm. The first trade in July showed a gain of 24 points over the previous close and there was a single trade in May after the opening call at 31.05 or a gain of 34 points.

New crop months started 13 points net higher. The market was influenced by private reports of rains and the revision report of certified stock here when showed only 3,150 bales, a minus of 1,000 bales from the 4,150 bales, correction of practically 3,000 bales.

The market was steady at the end of the half hour awaiting the weekly weather report.

HORSE

They're building livery stables in New York City. The horse is coming back, increasingly being used instead of motor trucks. This is a result of traffic congestion, moving slowly and halting a considerable part of the time at street intersections while traffic flows the other way. Then, too, there's delay standing in line waiting for turn to unload cargo. A wagon and team if horses represent less investment than a truck, some experts claim. They say it costs six cents a minute when a truck stands idle in the street, compared with three cents for a horse-drawn vehicle. Three-fourths of New York's freight is now handled by horses.

WORKERS

Nineteen hundred and twenty-two countries will be represented in a demonstration against war next September 21. It'll be staged by the International Federation of Trade Unions.

Demonstrations, however, will not end war. Neither would an international strike, for machine guns would be turned on strikers and their leaders. We have democracy—except in war when we need it most.

The quickest way to prevent war is to pass laws drafting factories and dollars. They could, of course, be "primed" that nothing would be too good for them after the war—oh, doughboys?

ADVENTURE

Sailor named Staden, said to have been deranged by the heat in the South Seas, jumped overboard. For a day and a night, perched on a life preserver, he fought off man-eating sharks with his pocket knife. He slashed shark after shark as they plunged at him. Then came rescue.

This "adventure," which many of us think we yearn for.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 14.—Stock prices moved within narrow and irregular limits at the opening of today's market but the main trend appeared to be upward. Steels and oils improved fractionally on short covering but heaviness again cropped out in the sugars and rubbers. Willys Overland pfd. dropped 1-8 to 64-8, a new 1924 model. Rails were firm with Atlantic Coast Line moving up 1-4 in anticipation of special dividend developments at tomorrow's meeting of the directors.

Prices continued to point upward in the early trading. Atlantic Coast Line extended its gain to 3 points and Louisville and Nashville moved up 2-8 to a new 1924 top at 34-8. New York dock common and preferred climbed 3-4 and 1-2 points respectively to new high prices in anticipation of increased earnings likely to result from the extensive improvements planned for New York harbor. Gains of a point or so were registered by more than a dozen issues, including Marland Oil, Stewart Warner and Philadelphia and Reading. Losses of approximately a point each were registered by Punta Alegre, Cuban American and Cuba Cane Sugars, the first named touching a new 1924 low at 55-3-4. Dupont broke nearly 3 points to a new low at 115-3-4 and Lackawanna and Chesapeake and Ohio fell back 1. Foreign exchange opened firm.
